

THE TRIBUNE INDEX.

A GUIDE TO PAST EVENTS.

From The New York Nation.

In announcing the receipt of THE TRIBUNE INDEX for 1850, we are glad to acknowledge our frequent indebtedness to this annual publication as a guide to past, but still recent events. The series has a great and growing value. Mr. John L. Weinheimer is the compiler.

THE HANDBOOK OF BOOKS.

A good index is about as hard to find in any office or library as one can well imagine; and that of THE NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE is one of the best and handsomest. The copy for 1850 is arranged with great care, and in such a simple and compact form, as to make the thousands of subjects contained in it, whether of art, science, etc., easy to find and register.

A GUIDE TO THE WORLD'S HISTORY.

THE NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE issues its INDEX for 1850, in a pocket form. It occupies 124 pages of clear printed matter. One is hardly aware of the enormous amount of work involved in the preparation of this great daily until he begins to look over the index. It is indeed a valuable addition to the volume of THE TRIBUNE. It is an index also of the world's history for the year just past. It bears good witness to the enterprise and energy of the Tribune in its compilation, and is easily accessible. The compilation again reflects credit upon THE TRIBUNE and Mr. John L. Weinheimer, who superintended the work.

AN INDEX OF THE WORLD'S HISTORY.

THE NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE issues its INDEX for 1850, in a pocket form. It occupies 124 pages of clear printed matter. One is hardly aware of the enormous amount of work involved in the preparation of this great daily until he begins to look over the index. It is indeed a valuable addition to the volume of THE TRIBUNE. It is an index also of the world's history for the year just past. It bears good witness to the enterprise and energy of the Tribune in its compilation, and is easily accessible. The compilation again reflects credit upon THE TRIBUNE and Mr. John L. Weinheimer, who superintended the work.

A SNUG AND HANDY VOLUME.

From The New York Nation.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE INDEX for 1850 is out, making a snug and handy volume convenient for use. It is a pocket form. It occupies 124 pages of clear printed matter. One is hardly aware of the enormous amount of work involved in the preparation of this great daily until he begins to look over the index. It is indeed a valuable addition to the volume of THE TRIBUNE. It is an index also of the world's history for the year just past. It bears good witness to the enterprise and energy of the Tribune in its compilation, and is easily accessible. The compilation again reflects credit upon THE TRIBUNE and Mr. John L. Weinheimer, who superintended the work.

A GREAT ADVANCE IN JOURNALISM.

From The Hartford Courant.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE INDEX for 1850 is a volume of one hundred and twenty pages, same size as the New-York Daily Tribune, and entirely compiled and to the whole a file of the paper is of great value. Its great use, however, will be to the historians of the world, for here all indexed are the events of 1850. The Index is an index also of the world's history for the year just past. It bears good witness to the enterprise and energy of the Tribune in its compilation, and is easily accessible. The compilation again reflects credit upon THE TRIBUNE and Mr. John L. Weinheimer, who superintended the work.

A MASTERY WORK.

From The Brooklyn Citizen and Argus.

The Index of THE NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE for 1850 is a masterly work, and will be of great value to all the students of history, and can be worked to advantage upon any newspaper. It is by so much all the more valuable to the public at large.

REAL ESTATE.

NEW YORK, Tuesday, Feb. 17, 1850.
The following sales were held at the Exchange Salesroom on Tuesday.

J. H. Miller &amp; Son.

2-story houses with lots Nos. 7 and 8 Waverly pl., between Mercer st. and 25th St., 118x100 ft. $4,350.

3-story brick house with lot, 10x70 ft. $4,073.

4-story brick house with lot, No. 728 Union, w. n. 41x40 ft. $5,100.

2-story brick houses with lots, 10x12 and 15x22 ft. $2,200.

2-story brick house with lot, 15x12 ft. $1,900.

2-story brick house with lot, 10x12 ft. $1,800.

2-story brick house with lot, 10x12 ft. $1,